How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

Special dispatch to the APPEAL says a fire broke out on the afternoon of Thursday and by 7 o'clock the entire business portion of the town was in ashes.

The fire began near the corner of Front and Pearl streets, in the Seattle Candy Factory building, at 2:30 P. M., and before midnight, had consumed the whole business section of the town Northward to Stetson & Post's mill and along Front and Second streets to the water front, involving a loss of over $5,000,000.

Not a fit, but an expression of delight. "About a week ago," says a Los Angeles, Cal., druggist, "a Chinaman came in with a lame shoulder. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and guaranteed that it would cure him. He came in again last night, and as soon as he got inside the door, began to swing his arms over his head like an Indian club swinger. I thought the blamed fool had a fit, but he finally stopped long enough to say: 'Medicine velly fine, velly fine; atly same make me feel plenty good.'" Chamberlain's Pain Balm is without an equal for sprains, rheumatism, aches, pains or lame back. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.
